Entry Hymn: 9 Lord God to you our Hearts we Raise

SENTENCE You, O Lord, are my hope, my trust from my youth.
 Upon you have I leaned since my birth. Psalm 71.5-6

COLLECT

Creator God,
 you have made us for yourself,
 and our hearts are restless until they find their rest in you:
 teach us to offer ourselves to your service,
 that here we may have your peace,
 and in the world to come
 may see you face to face;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah

Isaiah 58.9b-11

Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer;
 you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.
 If you remove the yoke from among you,
 the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil,
 if you offer your food to the hungry
 and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness
 and your gloom be like the noonday.
 The Lord will guide you continually,
 and satisfy your needs in parched places,
 and make your bones strong;

and you shall be like a watered garden,
like a spring of water,
whose waters never fail.

For the word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Psalm 103: 1-8

and for|get not | all his | benefits,
- 3 Who forgives |all your| sin:
And |heals| all .your in|firmities
- 4 Who redeems your |life .from the| Pit:
and crowns you with |mercy| and com|passion;
- 5+ Who satisfies your being with |good |things;
so that your |youth .is re|newed .like an |eagle's.
- 6 The Lord |works| righteousness :

- 7 He made known his |ways to |Moses:

- 8+ The Lord is full of com|passion .and |mercy:
slow to anger |and of| great| goodness.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Hebrews

Hebrews 12.18-29

You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them. (For they could not endure the order that was given, 'If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death.' Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, 'I tremble with fear.') But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel. See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven! At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, 'Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven.' This phrase 'Yet once more' indicates the removal of what is shaken—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe; for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

For the word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Gradual: 476 O For a Heart to Praise my God

GOSPEL

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

I am the way, the truth and the life, says the Lord;
no one comes to the Father, except through me.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The Lord be with you and also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Luke 13.10-17

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are set free from your ailment.' When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, 'There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.' But the Lord answered him and said, 'You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?' When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

AUGUST IS STEWARDSHIP RENEWAL MONTH

The Church 's financial year begins on the 1st of October, and new envelopes will be distributed to accommodate our giving. A firm commitment at this time will help the Parish Council in framing the budget for the ensuing year.

It is important for St George's to build on the achievements of the last 2 years in the is area of planned and committed giving. The Parish Council ask that you prayerfully consider the amount you will be willing to give to the work of God in our parish. A Stewardship renewal form will be distributed with the pew bulletin during August that we ask you to fill in and return via the offertory plate or by mail, as indicated on the form, by Sunday September 4th.

Fr Stuart
