Introit: O Lord, increase our faith - Loosemore
Entry Hymn: 60 Father of heaven

SENTENCE You know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. 2 Corinthians 8.9

COLLECT

Loving Father,
 whose Son Jesus Christ has taught us that what we do for the least of our brothers and sisters
 we do also for him:
 give us the will to be the servant of others as he was the servant of all,
 who gave up his life and died for us,
 and yet lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
 one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF AMOS

Amos 8:4-7
 Hear this, you that trample on the needy,
 and bring to ruin the poor of the land, saying, 'When will the new moon be over
 so that we may sell grain;
 and the sabbath,
 so that we may offer wheat for sale?
 We will make the ephah small and the shekel great,
 and practise deceit with false balances,

buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals,
 and selling the sweepings of the wheat.’
 The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob:
 Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

For the word of the Lord Thanks be to God

PSALM 113

- 1 Praise the Lord, O sing praises, you that |are his |servants:
O |praise the | name .of the | Lord.
- 2 Let the name of the |Lord be | blessed:
from this time |forward | and for| ever.
- 3 From the rising of the sun to its |going | down-:
let the |name. of the| Lord be | praised.
- 4 The Lord is exalted over |all the | nations:
and his |glory .is a|bove the |heavens.
- 5 Who can be likened to the | Lord our | God-:
in |heaven . or up|on the |earth,
- 6 Who has his |dwelling . so | high-:
yet condescends to |look on |things be|neath?
- 7 He raises the| lowly . from the | dust:
and lifts the |poor from | out of . the |dungheap;
- 8 He gives them a place a|mong the | princes:
even among the |princes | of his | people.

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

1 Timothy 2.1-7

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all—this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

For the word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Gradual: 91 Morning has broken

GOSPEL

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Though our Lord Jesus Christ was rich, he became poor,
 so that by his poverty you might become rich.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The Lord be with you and also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Luke 16.1-13

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Then Jesus said to the disciples, ‘There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, “What is this that I hear about you? Give me an account of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.” Then the manager said to himself, “What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.” So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he asked the first, “How much do you owe my master?” He answered, “A hundred jugs of olive oil.” He said to him, “Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.” Then he asked another, “And how much do you owe?” He replied, “A hundred containers of wheat.” He said to him, “Take your bill and make it eighty.” And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes. ‘Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.'

Postlude: Gaudeamus by Alec Rowley

Alec Rowley (1892-1958) was a pupil of Frederick Corder at the Royal Academy of Music in London. His more demanding work as a composer has been unfairly neglected. Rowley's Piano Concerto No.1, scored for piano, strings, and percussion, was first performed in 1938. He was for many years the organist of St Alban's Church, Teddington and was a contributor to 'The Rotunda', the house magazine of Henry Willis & Sons Ltd.

"Five Improvisations" were published by Novello in 1948. Each of the works deals with a particular "mood", which is inspired the verse of a specific psalm, cited at the beginning of the piece. While I was playing these works, I could not help but feel shades of Percy Whitlock's "psalm pieces", although the harmonic language is definitely that of Rowley. His use of "regular" harmonies in distinctive ways is noteworthy. For instance, in the "Solemn Prelude," he shifts between the tonalities of F Minor & A Minor with great effect. There is also the blending of modal harmonies with highly chromatic ones.

The fifth of the "Five Improvisations" is "Gaudeamus." It is dedicated to Wilfrid Greenhouse Altt, who was assistant organist of Norwich Cathedral, a President Edinburgh Society of Organists, as well as President of the Incorporated Society of Musicians. He was well-known for his harpsichord playing, and was also President of Trinity College in London. The title, "Gaudeamus," translates as "Let us rejoice!," and this piece does just that! The work begins on a "dissonant" chord, which immediately grabs the attention of the listener. A swinging and joyful D major melts down to a quiet central section in the minor. The energy is maintained, and the opening material soon returns, all of this building to a glorious coda, played on the full organ.

The psalm verse quoted in this work is: "God is our hope and strength, a very present help in trouble." (Psalm 46, verse 1)
