SENTENCE What shall I return to the Lord for all his bounty to me? I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord, I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people. Psalm 116.12-14

COLLECT

Almighty God,
 in your wisdom you have so ordered our earthly life
 that we must walk by faith and not by sight:
 give us such trust in your care
 that in the face of all perplexities
 we may give proof of our faith
 by the courage of our lives;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A READING FROM THE SECOND BOOK OF KINGS

2 Kings 5.1-3, 7-15c

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favour with his master, because by him the Lord had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, 'If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy.' When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, 'Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me.' But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, 'Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel.’ So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha’s house. Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, ‘Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean.’ But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, ‘I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?’ He turned and went away in a rage. But his servants approached and said to him, ‘Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, “Wash, and be clean”?’ So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean. Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; he came and stood before him and said, ‘Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel; please accept a present from your servant.’

A READING FROM THE SECOND BOOK OF TIMOTHY

2 Timothy 2:8-13

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David— that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained.

Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

The saying is sure:

If we have died with him, we will also live with him;
if we endure, we will also reign with him;
if we deny him, he will also deny us;
if we are faithless, he remains faithful—
for he cannot deny himself.

For the word of the Lord           Thanks be to God

Gradual: 552 Have faith in God, my heart

GOSPEL

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

In all circumstances, give thanks,
for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The Lord be with you   and also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Luke 17:11.19

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, ‘Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!’ When he saw them, he said to them, ‘Go and show yourselves to the priests.’ And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, ‘Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?’ Then he said to him, ‘Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.’

Senior Victorians' full, rich lives on show in Benetas exhibition

Fifteen women in the Latrobe Valley who knit for those in need and a Camberwell woman who has devoted herself to education and environmental care are among the compelling subjects featured in Benetas' second "Unexpected Heroes" photographic exhibition for Victorian Seniors Week.

Refugees: a new way

For years, Australia's refugee policy has staggered between two appalling problems: asylum-seekers getting on leaky boats and dying at sea, and the calculatedly callous and cruel approach of successive governments, leaving refugees to die slowly in offshore detention centres, all hope deliberately removed. Is there a way through this impasse?

Both Tim Costello, World Vision chief and Christian activist, and Philip Freier, Anglican Primate of Australia, believe that there is. They believe asylum-seekers can be treated more justly without encouraging people smugglers. The conversation will be moderated by ABC Radio's John Cleary.
