From our Locum,

The book of Job is often considered one which is difficult to understand. Many scholars believe it was written to try and wrestle with the human problem of suffering which for people of the 21st Century can be a reason for not believing in God or having any belief system at all.

The book itself belongs to what is called the Wisdom literature of the Bible and was an essential part of the Jewish faith and later for the writers of those books written around the time that many of the books of the New Testament were produced.

The form of the book is interesting. Satan and God have a conversation in which Satan asks for someone who is both righteous and upright, successful in life and has a practising faith. Satan's purpose is to find out if a righteous man of faith will denounce his God and curse Him in the face of his personal adversity. In the Job passage chosen for today Job does not curse or deny God but rather wishes to find Him to answer a series of questions which have arisen as a result of his personal suffering and the result of advice from one of his friends. Any human being who has suffered greatly will know the feelings which Job expresses in the passage. Job feels that there is a cloud of darkness which separates him from God – indeed Job wishes to speak to God and he cannot find Him.

At the core of the Christian faith is the mystery of a suffering God – hence the words used in the Eucharist: “Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.” This is our hope even in the face of suffering – it is not an answer to a problem of distress, but it allows us to face suffering with the presence of God within us.

Sentence

There is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for Jesus' sake, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life.

Mark 10.29–30

Collect

Merciful God,
in your Son you call not the righteous but sinners to repentance:
draw us away from the easy road that leads to destruction,
and guide us into paths that lead to life abundant,
that in seeking your truth,
and obeying your will,
we may know the joy of being a disciple of Jesus our Saviour;
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Almighty God

The giver of all gifts

By your Holy Spirit you have appointed Various orders of ministry in your church Look with mercy and favour on all who are called

Especially John our priest elect.

Help him to serve you faithfully in this Parish

For the glory of your name

and the benefit of your church and people

Through Jesus Christ our Lord

Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God now and forever. Amen

A reading from the book of Job

Job 23.1-9, 16-17

Then Job answered:

‘Today also my complaint is bitter;
his hand is heavy despite my groaning.

O that I knew where I might find him,
that I might come even to his dwelling!

I would lay my case before him,
and fill my mouth with arguments.

I would learn what he would answer me,
and understand what he would say to me.

Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?

No; but he would give heed to me.

There an upright person could reason with him,

and I should be acquitted for ever by my judge.
 'If I go forward, he is not there;
 or backward, I cannot perceive him;
 on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him;
 I turn to the right, but I cannot see him.
 God has made my heart faint;
 the Almighty has terrified me;
 If only I could vanish in darkness,
 and thick darkness would cover my face!

For the Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Psalm 22 Vv 1-15

1 My God my God why have | you for|saken me:
why are you so far from helping me

- 15+ My mouth is dried | up . like a | potsherd:
and my | tongue | clings . to my | gums.

A reading from Hebrews

Hebrews 4.12-16

Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

For the Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

Mark 10.17-31

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, ‘Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?’ Jesus said to him, ‘Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: “You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother.”’ He said to him, ‘Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.’ Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, ‘You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.’ When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, ‘How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!’ And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, ‘Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.’ They were greatly astounded and said to one another, ‘Then who can be saved?’ Jesus looked at them and said, ‘For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.’ Peter began to say to him, ‘Look, we have left everything and followed you.’ Jesus said, ‘Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.’
