The Lord is risen, alleluia, alle-lu-ia! He is risen indeed, alleluia, alle-lu-ia!

Let us proceed in peace. In the name of Christ. A - men.

HYMN: AHB 290(ii) Christ the Lord is risen today

Christ the Lord is risen today:

Hallelujah!

Sons of men and angels say:

Hallelujah!

Raise your joys and triumphs high:

Hallelujah!

Sing, O heavens, and earth reply:

Hallelujah!

Love's redeeming work is done;
fought the fight, the battle won;
vain the stone, the watch, the seal:
Christ has burst the gates of hell.

Lives again our glorious king;
where, O death, is now your sting?
Once he died our souls to save;
where your victory, O grave?

Soar we now where Christ has led,
following our exalted Head;
made like him, like him we rise:
ours the cross, the grave, the skies.

Charles Wesley 1707-88 alt.

At the station before the procession enters the chancel, the Celebrant sings

Father, forgive us.
Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Acts 10.34-43

Then Peter began to speak to them: ‘I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ - he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.’

SECOND READING

A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians 15.19-26

If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died. For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being; for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ. But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

RESURRECTION GOSPEL

JOHN 20.1-18

Deacon The Lord be with you

All And also with you.

Deacon Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All Glory to you, Lord Je-sus Christ.

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, ‘They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.’ Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went towards the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, ‘Woman, why are you weeping?’ She said to them, ‘They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.’ When she had said this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, ‘Woman, why are you weeping? For whom are you looking?’ Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, ‘Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.’ Jesus said to her, ‘Mary!’ She turned and said to him in Hebrew, ‘Rabbouni!’ (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, ‘Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, “I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.”’ Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, ‘I have seen the Lord’; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

Deacon This is the Gospel of the Lord.

ALL Praise to you, Lord Je-sus Christ.

SERMON

A silence for reflection follows the sermon.

CREED

Please stand

Celebrant Let us together affirm the faith of the Church:

We believe in one God,
the Father, the almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary
and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is worshipped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for ☩the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The sacred ministers and servers move to the font and the congregation turns towards them.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Deacon Let us pray

Bless those who are to reaffirm their baptismal promises. Grant us your grace to live as disciples of Christ. Give us the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of discernment and inner strength, the spirit of knowledge and true godliness, and fill us, Father, with wonder and awe at your presence.

God of grace,
hear our prayer.

Guide the leaders of the nations into the ways of peace and justice. Bless those who administer the law, that they may uphold justice, honesty and truth.

God of grace,
hear our prayer.

Help us to fulfil our responsibility as citizens and to seek the well-being of society; teach us to care for the earth, and to use its fruits to your glory and for the good of all people.

God of grace,
hear our prayer.

Help and comfort the lonely, the bereaved and all who are oppressed and suffer injustice.

God of grace,
hear our prayer.

Heal the sick in body and mind, and provide for the homeless, the hungry and the destitute.

God of grace,
hear our prayer.

Hear us as we remember those who have died in the peace of Christ, both those who have confessed the faith, and those whose faith is known to you alone, and grant us with them a share in your eternal kingdom.

God of grace,
hear our prayer.

We thank you for the ministry we have to each other in the household of faith. Hasten that day when the whole creation shall be made perfect in Christ, and our baptism fulfilled in the joy of your eternal kingdom.

God of grace,
hear our prayer.

RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS

The Celebrant invites each member of the congregation to renew their own baptismal vows.

Celebrant

As we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead, we remember that through the Paschal mystery we also have died and been buried with him in baptism, so that we may rise with him to new life within the family of his Church.

Now that we have completed our observance of Lent, we renew the promises made at our baptism, affirming our allegiance to Christ and our rejection of all that is evil.

Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

All I do.

Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of the bread, and in the prayers?

I will, with God's help.

Will you persevere in resisting evil, and whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

I will, with God's help.

Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

I will, with God's help.

Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbour as yourself?

I will, with God's help.

Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

I will, with God's help.

The Celebrant sprinkles the people with water.

Celebrant This water is the reminder of your baptism into Christ.

GREETING OF PEACE

The risen Christ came and stood among his disciples and said, 'Peace be with you.' Then they were glad when they saw the Lord.

Alleluya! The peace of the Risen Christ be always with you.

All And also with you. Alleluya!

We greet those around us in the name of the Risen Lord.

OFFERTORY HYMN: AHB 439 Hallelujah! Sing to Jesus

Hallelujah! sing to Jesus,
his the sceptre, his the throne;
hallelujah! his the triumph,
his the victory alone;
hark, the songs of peaceful Zion
thunder like a mighty flood:
'Jesus out of every nation
has redeemed us by his blood.'

Hallelujah! not as orphans,
are we left in sorrow now;
hallelujah! he is near us,
faith believes, nor questions how;
though the cloud from sight received him
when the forty days were o'er,
shall our hearts forget his promise,
'I am with you evermore'?

Hallelujah! bread of heaven,
and on earth our food, our stay;
hallelujah! here the sinful
flee to you from day to day;
intercessor, friend of sinners,
earth's redeemer, plead for me
where the songs of all the sinless sweep across the crystal sea.

Hallelujah! King eternal,
you the Lord of lords we own;
hallelujah! born of Mary,
earth your footstool, heav'n your throne:
you within the veil have entered,
robed in flesh, our great high priest;
you on earth both priest and victim
in the eucharistic feast.

William Chatterton Dix 1837-98

The congregation remains standing until the communion.

Celebrant

Hymn: AHB 276(i) Light's glittering morn bedecks the sky

Light's glittering morn bedecks the sky;
heaven thunders forth its victory;

alleluia, alleluia!

the glad earth shouts her triumph high
and groaning hell makes wild reply:

alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,
alleluia, alleluia!

while he the king, the mighty king,
despoiling death of all its sting

alleluia, alleluia!

and trampling down the powers of night
brings forth his ransomed souls to light.

alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,
alleluia, alleluia!

His tomb of late the threefold guard
of watch and stone and seal had barred;

alleluia, alleluia!

but now in power and triumph high
he comes from death to victory.

alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,
alleluia, alleluia!

The pains of hell are loosed at last;
the days of mourning now are past;
alleluia, alleluia!

an angel robed in light has said,
'The Lord has risen from the dead!'
alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,
alleluia, alleluia!

From every weapon death can wield
your own redeemed for ever shield:
alleluia, alleluia!

O Lord of all, with us abide
in this our joyful Eastertide.
alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,
alleluia, alleluia!
